

I Can Feel It Coming

“I can feel it coming in the air tonight, oh Lord
And I've been waiting for this moment for all my life, oh Lord
Can you feel it coming in the air tonight? Oh Lord, oh Lord “

from In The Air Tonight - Phil Collins 1981

60 years ago today President Kennedy was murdered in Dallas Texas. The psycho-satanists announced to the world on that day that anyone who dared defy them would be brought down. The United States was brought to heel that day. The days, years, and decades of perpetual war had begun. These psychotic masters of psychological manipulation have pitted races, religions, and nations against one another for their own purposes, mainly profits and power ever since.

Now the time is very near when all the lies and corruption will be revealed and the house of cards they built around fiat currency and debt based economies will come crashing down.

Can you feel it coming? The time is near.

The revelations that are going to come out will soon increase from a trickle to a flood. Even those that get all their information from mainstream media, Facebook/Meta or other social media will not be able to avoid seeing it. The lies are enormous so the the affect will be hard on people as they have their reality pulled out from underneath them. This will be a dangerous time.

The financial system is being dismantled and a new system will replace it. This cannot be stopped. It is going to happen and soon. Is this a good thing? Maybe, it depends who ends up in control of the money system for the world. I believe it will be a very good thing for the people but it could also go the other way and mean total enslavement to the psycho-satanists. Either way it means a dangerous period of chaos.

The war has become more visible to everyone and the the psycho-satanists have been busy trying to make the visible war into World War III or Armageddon (the last battle between good and evil before the Day of Judgment). Neither is likely as nobody, especially the US, has the money to wage a large scale war. The US relies on borrowed money and who has or is going to loan the US the money for another war? They will make a lot of noise and try hard but I believe they will fail as the financial legs for financing a large war have been cut off . The plan to defeat the psycho-satanists all along has been to take away control of the money systems globally. It's all coming to a scary conclusion very soon.

Very few people understand money or where it comes from so people have been easily fooled into all kinds of nonsense. This is coming to an end and I believe money will soon be understood in a whole new way and used for the benefit of all humanity.

The next few months are going to be very dangerous times and real people will suffer and die. Having a perspective other than the spoon fed lies being put out on TV and social media will increase your odds of survival. Be VERY skeptical of everything you see or hear. The fakery has gotten so good you can't tell what is real on any screen.

There will be more attempts to try to scare you into doing something stupid.

You Can Make a Difference:

- Pay attention and question everything.
- Stand up and speak out against the nonsense and petty tyrants.
- Take care of yourself and learn TRE
- Be kind to those struggling with what is happening

Remember:

- YOU were born into this time for a purpose!
- YOU are blessed to be living in this amazing time!
- Whoever ends up controlling the money will be the new boss
- All the "crazy" stuff going on is NOT a random series of events
- You are being manipulated by all media, especially social media
